HENRY C. HURT, JR.
CHATHAM, VIRGINIA 24531

April 24, 1986

Dear Mr. Brown,

I am rushing to go out of town for about a week, and I thought I should alert you that I still have not received the material being sent by your station concerning my book, Reasonable Doubt. As I noted in my letter to you of a week ago, I am anxious to be cooperative in considering any request by you or by your news correspondent, Johann Rush. That is why I wanted you to know that as of this date, I still have not received the material promised.

Thank you for your attention and cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Henry Hurt.
